Case #: 10975-PBS

Dear Judge,

I write you this letter to tell you I mailed my complaint to Mr. Michael Cedrone at the same time I mailed those paper you received today. So, I send them to you to let you know that. This means that he has to come with all those papers to file his complaint against me. Before mailing my complaint to him, I called him and left message to call me back but he did not return my phone call.

Again, today before doing this letter, I call him and left a message for him to call receptionist with my phone number so that he can call me back but he still does not answer. This means that, there is no reason to deny those papers you just received. I just do that to let you know how many papers I send to him.

Sincerely,

Pierre M. Cadet
